

Letters from Gigi

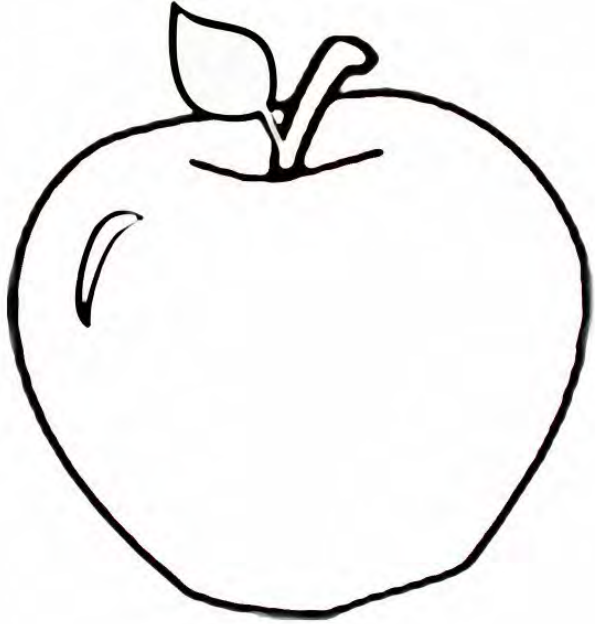

by Gigi Perry and Syd “Papa” Smith

Hi, Gigi Perry here. This is a new kind of book for us to share. In this book, you get to read the words – and color the pictures.

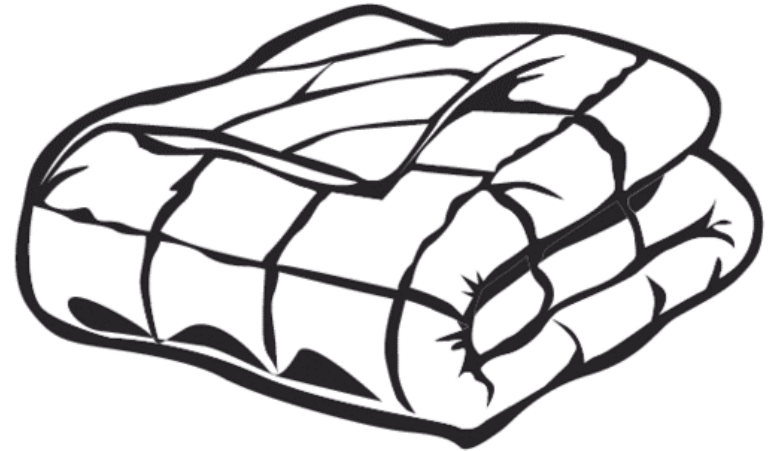

There are pictures and words for each letter from A to Z. I wrote the words and Papa got the pictures.

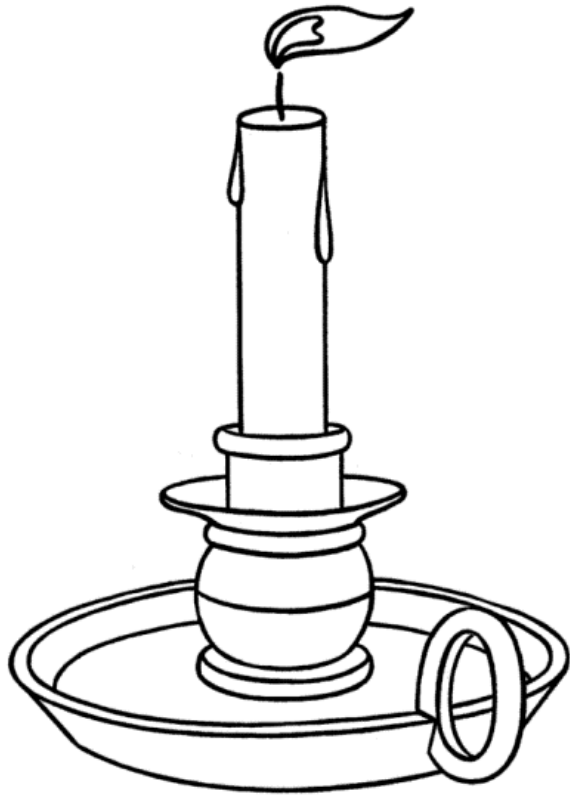

I think this will be fun, so let's start right now!

A is for Apple,
so shiny and red.

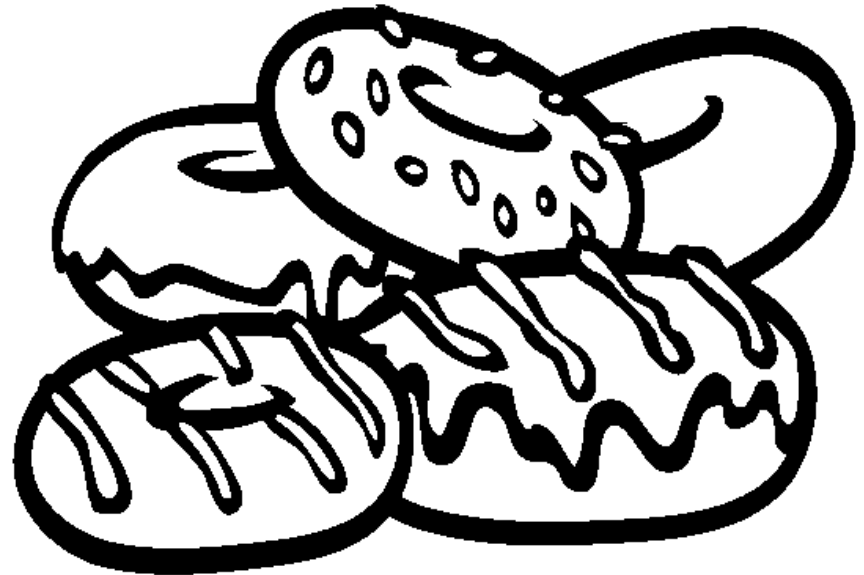

B is for Blanket
I put on my bed.

C is for Candle that gives us nice light.

D is for Donut that I like to bite!

E is for Egg that we cook on the stove.

F is for Finger that fits in a glove.

G is for Gigi –
that's little old me.

H is for Happy which I like to be.

I is for Ice Cream
that I love to eat.

J is for Jump that I do with my feet.

K is for Kite that we fly in the sky.

L is for Lamp that I can read by.

M is for Milk that tastes very good.

N is for Noodle –
a really fine food.

O is for Oven
where my Momo cooks.

P is for Pencil you use to write books.

Q is for Quilt that Momo can sew.

R is for Roof that keeps off the snow.

S is for Salad that I think is yummy.

T is for Table where I fill my tummy.

U is for Umbrella
in case of a shower.

V is for Vinegar that really tastes sour.

W is for Window,
to look at the moon.

X is for Xylophone
for playing a tune.

Y is for Yarn that you knit in a sweater.

Z is for Zipper to close it up better.

That was fun! Thanks for coming with me to look at all the letters and color the pictures.

But that made me hungry, so I think I will have a nice donut or two.

That's all for now from your pal Gigi Perry (and Papa).
