

PAPA AND THE GOAT

by Gigi Perry and Syd “Papa” Smith

Hi, Gigi Perry here. Do you want to have more fun with me and Papa? Yes?
Then come
with us when we go back to the farm!

One day, Papa and I went to see a new farm. When we got to the farm, I went to meet the farm pigs.

Papa said, “It is such a nice, warm day that I want to take a nap”. So, he lay down and soon went to sleep.

But he did not know that he was
in the goat pen.
Soon, a goat came
over to see what Papa had for him
to eat.

Papa did not have any food,
but the goat said, “Oh, his shoes look good to eat!”

So, the goat
ate Papa’s
shoes, but Papa did not wake up.

The goat was not full, so when
he saw Papa's hat, he said, “That hat looks very good. I will eat it, too!”

So, the goat ate Papa's hat, but Papa still did not
wake up!

The goat said, “The shoes and the hat were very good, but I want to eat more. It is a nice, warm day, so Papa will not get cold if I eat his shirt.”

So, the goat ate Papa’s shirt. Did Papa wake up? No!

The goat was almost full, but he saw Papa's pants and said, "Oh, boy, his pants look good to eat."

So, the goat ate Papa's pants, but even then Papa did not wake up.

Now, the goat was very full, and he said a loud “Baa-aa!” That made Papa wake up, and he said to the goat, “What did you do with my shoes and hat and shirt and pants?”

The goat
did not tell Papa.
He just made a loud
burp.

So, Papa ran to get me and we got into the car to go home.

When we got back home, Momo said, “Papa, where are your shoes and hat and shirt and pants? Did you lose them?”

Papa said, “No, I did not lose them. A goat ate them!”

Momo said, “That is so silly! Gigi, take Papa up to his room and find some things for him to wear.”

So, we got a new suit for Papa to wear.

I said, “Papa, you had bad luck at this farm, just like I did at the last one when I fell in the mud.”

Papa said, “Gigi, that is so true. You and I need to stay home, and not go to any more farms!”

I said that was a good idea, and that we will stay home from now on.

Do you think we will?

You will just have to wait and see....
